IICL'S FIRST REEFER COURSE OF 2010
TO BE HELD IN CHILE IN FEBRUARY

Washington, DC— IICL will hold its first Refrigerated Container course of 2010 from 23 - 25 February in Valparaiso, Chile.

This 2 ½ day course will offer intensive instruction of IICL reefer container inspection and repair guidelines. Other topics planned for the course will be drawn from the following: reefer body construction and machinery inspection. Depot sessions will provide practical demonstrations of principles discussed in class. The classroom session will be held at the Gala Hotel Viña del Mar and practical demonstration will be held at the SAAM Depot. The machinery presentation will also be conducted at the depot where students will be able to view and participate in practical demonstrations of subjects as they are covered in the classroom.

The deadline for receipt at IICL of registrations and course tuition fees for the Valparaiso, Chile Reefer course is February 12th. The tuition fee is US $1000.00, payable by credit card, teletransfer or with a check (must be drawn on a U.S. branch or affiliate of your bank). The tuition fee includes a copy of the pocket-size course textbook (Guide for Refrigerated Container Inspection and Repair, 3rd edition) and a Farewell Lunch.

The Institute of International Container Lessors, Ltd. (IICL) is a trade association, organized in 1971, representing lessors of maritime containers and intermodal chassis. Its member companies are CAI, Cronos, Flexi-Van, Florens, GE SeaCO, Gold, Seacastle Container Leasing, Textainer, TAL International and Triton. IICL members own or manage approximately 90 percent of the global leased container fleet, representing nearly half of the world container fleet and half of the U.S. chassis fleet operated by ocean carriers, railroads, and other companies. The IICL is active in governmental, regulatory, educational, technological, environmental and security issues. Besides its widely accepted publications and annual inspector certification examinations, the IICL offers a wide range of educational training courses.
