IICL ANNOUNCES ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP AWARD RECIPIENTS

Briarcliff Manor, New York - IICL President, Steven R. Blust is pleased to announce the three award recipients of the 2007 IICL Container Scholarship Program. The recipients are chosen on the basis of financial need, the applicants' future plans, and an essay on the role of inspection in the container industry. The scholarship award includes the registration fee for the Container Inspector's Examination and a full set of the manuals on which the examination is based.

The scholarship recipients for 2007 are: Mr. Ramaya Sankaran, Mr. Mwanyule Donald and Mr. Ramesh Koli.

Mr. Sankaran has been working for Indian Container Survey in India as a Depot Surveyor since 2000. His previous work experience was also as a surveyor for Con- Spec Container Depot in India.

For the past 17 years Mr. Donald has worked as a foreman for Logistic Container Centre in Kenya.

Mr. Koli has been working as an Assistant Surveyor for Admin Controllers Pvt. In India for the past 8 years.

"I would like to extend my sincere congratulations to this year's recipients for their continued efforts in supporting a global fleet of quality containers utilized by our industry", said Mr. Blust.

INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL CONTAINER LESSORS

The Institute of International Container Lessors, Ltd. (IICL) is a trade association, organized in 1971, representing lessors of maritime containers and intermodal chassis. Its member companies are Amficon, CAI, Carlisle, Cronos, Flexi-Van, Florens, GE SeaCO, Gold, Interpool, Textainer, Trac, TAL and Triton. IICL members own or manage approximately 90 percent of the global leased container fleet, representing nearly half of the world container fleet and half of the U.S. chassis fleet operated by ocean carriers, railroads, and other companies. The IICL is active in governmental, regulatory, educational, technological, environmental and security issues. In addition to its widely accepted publications and annual inspector certification examinations, the IICL offers a wide range of educational training courses.
